One morning a mommy bird lays 3 eggs

After few days she flies to find some food for the babies, who were just about to come out.

It was very windy, when mama bird flies. All her eggs fall down into a hole with lots of leaves. This was a GROUNDHOGS house.

Mama bird comes back.
"Where are my babies?"
She cries.

The ground hog knew that Mama bird would be looking for her babies. He gently pushes the eggs up on the ground, so mama can see them.

"Tweet-tweet-tweet", here comes the babies out of the egg
"My babies" cries the mommy

Thank you Mr Groundhog
