

The noodle Family

by Jacob A.
Luther

One day the noodles
were going to the church to get married.

After getting married they went home and waited for awhile to get the baby.

Then they went to the hospital to get the baby.
The hoodles were worried about it.

When they got the baby
the noodles named him Max and they played with him and they sang lullabies to him and fed him.

When a year passed and the baby was one year old they decided to go on vacation. But first the baby had to take a nap.

After the nap the noodles went to Great Noodle Lodge.
The baby cried all the way there. When they got there the dad changed his diaper, and the baby stopped crying.

After lunch the noodles went to Great Noodle Lodge park. They slid down water slides and went under sprinklers and had lots of fun.

Then they went home
and had a good life, forever.

